

Set A SAT Words Weeks 1-5

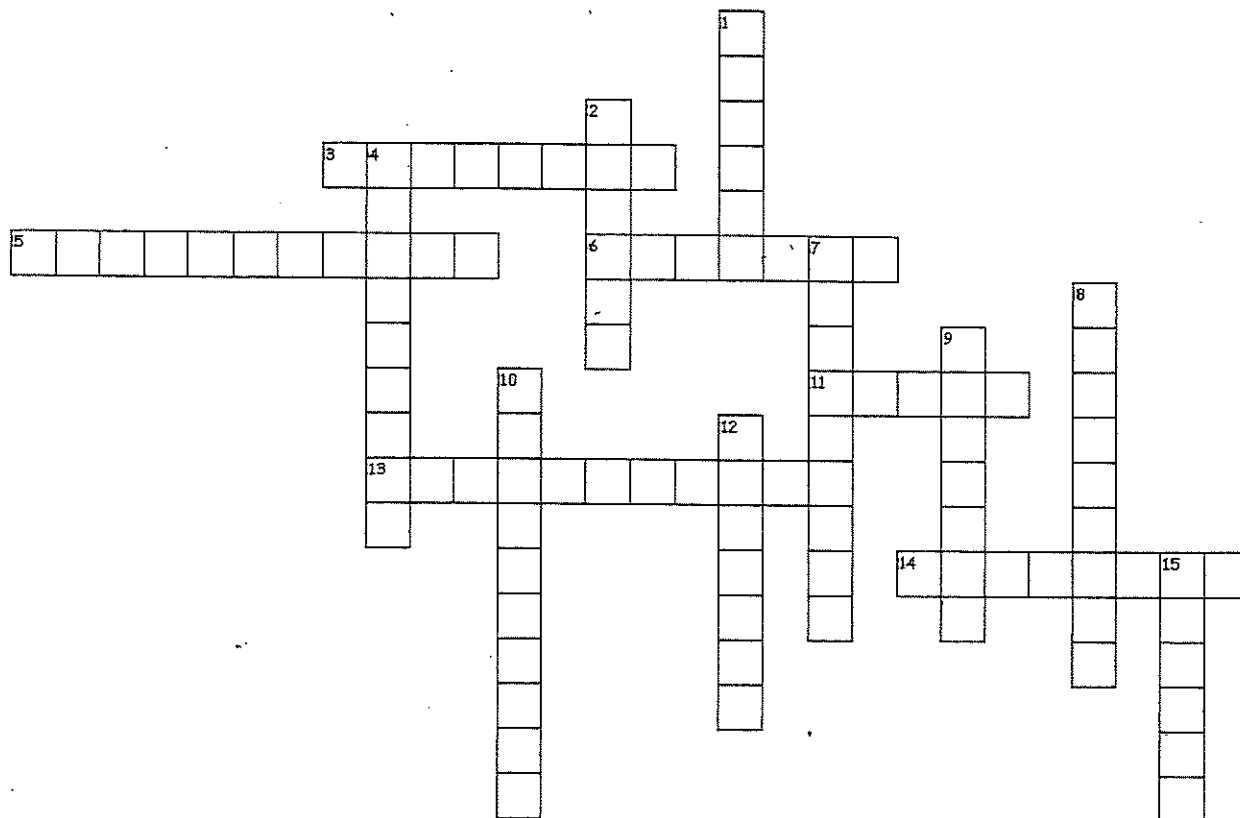

Across

- 2. too dark or thick for light to pass through
- 4. capable of evaporating, exploding or changing moods very quickly
- 7. uncontrollably joyous
- 8. riddle; mystery
- 10. to seize or take over by force
- 12. depressed
- 13. unselfish; caring
- 14. different from most, especially in personality or behaviors
- 15. defame; attack someone's reputation

Down

- 1. to dry out; shrivel up; lose life or energy
- 3. showy; making ridiculous claims; excessively ambitious
- 5. tired; sluggish; drowsy
- 6. pushy; obnoxiously self-assertive
- 9. in total agreement
- 11. poor; lacking possessions

Set A SAT Words Weeks 6-10

Across

- 3. emptied; drained; used up
- 5. mysterious
- 6. to criticize severely; scold
- 11. to praise
- 13. unnecessary; extra
- 14. humorous but with sarcasm or disdain

Down

- 1. to agree
- 2. to read carefully; study in detail
- 4. to make more beautiful; decorate
- 7. continuous; endless
- 8. strong; persistent; determined to hold on
- 9. friendly; welcoming; gracious
- 10. sociable; extroverted; enjoying companionship
- 12. filled with self-importance; arrogant
- 15. to get in the way; hinder